SUBJECT: Golden State Education and Training Grant Program Key Dates

This Special Alert from the California Student Aid Commission (Commission) announces the opening of the 2022-2023 Application for the Golden State Education and Training Grant Program (GSETGP). The following key dates will allow the Commission and institutions to ensure eligible applicants and institutions receive their grant funding or administrative costs in a timely manner.

2021-2022 Key Dates:

August 15, 2022 by 5 p.m. PST	• Deadline for applicants to apply for the Golden State Education and Training Grant Program for the 2021-2022 Academic Year.
September 2, 2022 by 5 p.m. PST	• Deadline for institutions to verify student enrollment for the 2021-2022 Academic Year in the GSETGP Roster in WebGrants, as described in GOM 2022-15. • After this date, the Commission will begin the one percent administrative cost allocation process, based off the students who were verified by the deadline.

2022-2023 Application Opening:

August 29, 2022	• Opening of the Golden State Education and Training Grant Program Expanded Application for the 2022-2023 Academic Year.

As announced in GSA 2022-16, this program was established in the 2021-22 state budget to provide one-time grants to eligible California resident workers who lost their jobs due to the COVID-19 pandemic and are enrolling in a public institution of higher learning or an approved training program to learn new skills and get back into the workforce.
